

Chaos

Chaos
Is a five letter word that Many People live in

Chaos
Is a five letter word that
Some
Can not relate to

Chaos
Is in the heart of those that walk by me at the grocery store drive their cars neatly into garages in the my neighborhood

Chaos
Is what crushed dreams, lowered expectations and hurts thrive on

Chaos
is in the hearts of many around us it paralyzes them and tells them that

Things will always be this way
There is no hope
Things will never change
Your healing will not come
Your deliverance is not around the corner
And you are clinging to vapors

Chaos is what the Lord destroys today
He has come that you might have life and have it more abundantly

He has come to breathe hope into you
To fulfill those dreams, those desires, to speak peace, of new beginnings and joy

Chaos has to flee when Jesus steps into situations
He has always been known for Making the crooked places straight
Breaking the chains
Releasing the fears from minds that have questioned Healing the bruised and bandaging those in need

So- for those of you today
Who question
Who hurt
Who swirl in chaos

Release yourself to HIM today Release the chaos of your life to Someone that HAS the power to change it

Give it over to him and feel the lifting of the load as he makes something beautiful out of the ruins of your soul

Chaos is a bad thing you might say...
But to my Savior
My friend
My redeemer
My life
My Jesus
Chaos is his specialization

I pray for you today- release it over to him!
